Discover and Explore the Sites of Palo, Tacloban City and Babatngon, Leyte

Go on a tour around the City of Tacloban. Our Day Tour will give you a glimpse of the various historical, religious and cultural sites around the City of Tacloban and the Municipality of Palo. Sites to see are the:

Crucified Christ; Madonna of Japan; Crucified Christ Statue; Sto. Nino Church (also known as Church of Liberation); Leyte Provincial Capitol seat of the Provincial Government of Leyte;

CAP Building (formerly Price Mansion) Sturdy mansion where General MacArthur put up his official headquarters and residence during the liberation of the Philippines in 1944. The building suffered a direct hit from a bomb dropped by a Japanese warplane.

Sto. Nino Shrine and Heritage Museum home of the Miraculous Image of the Sto. Niño and priceless art collections., highlights are paintings of the 14 stations of the Cross done by Filipino artists, wooden bas-relief of the legend of the First Filipino man-woman (Si Malakas at si Maganda); tastefully decorated guestrooms of varied Filipino motifs; image of the Holy Child;

Gen. Douglas MacArthur Landing Memorial situated in Red Beach, Palo, Leyte. The monument marks the spot where Gen. Douglas MacArthur landed with the American Liberation Forces in 1944. The statues of the liberators stand in a lagoon, 1.5 times bigger than lifesize. It is also the site of the 50th Leyte Landing Anniversary Commemorative Rock Garden of Peace.

San Juanico Bridge is the longest and most beautifully designed bridge in the Philippines; surrounded by the picturesque San Juanico Strait with a thousand whirlpools and lovely islets.

The bridge crosses over San Juanico Strait, connects Brgy. Cabalawan, Tacloban City (Leyte side) and Sta. Rita town (Samar side) approximately 20 minutes from Tacloban City.

Rafael Farms, Babatngon, Leyte. Excellent place for a relaxing and delicious meal. After the meal, visitors can just sit back and enjoy the beauty of nature.
